WHITES NEED HOSPITAL FOR CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

Dr. Summerall Startles Rotary Club in Discussing City's Lack of Facilities

"There is no provision at present in Atlanta for caring for white people afflicted with any contagious diseases except diphtheria and scarlet fever," Dr. Summerall, head of the Grady hospital, told the members of the Rotary club at their meeting in the Winscott hotel Thursday night, started them into taking immediate action. He also changed the whole purpose of the meeting, which was to provide a hospital for colored people with contagious diseases.

"I made it a point to discuss this tonight," Dr. Summerall said, "to show you that the white people are as bad off as the negroes, and that there is just as great a need for the whites as for the negroes."

"Among the more frequent of the contagious diseases for which there is absolutely no provision are measles, whooping cough, erysipelas and venereal affections. Some of the latter cases, when the eyes are affected and blindness threatened, we take them into the Grady hospital. The other day we isolated a negro baby in a corner of a ward, with two special nurses. Its eyes were saved, though."

"That is news to me," said Mayor Woodward. "I was surprised to hear when I took office as mayor that there were no accommodations for the negroes. Tonight I begin to feel that the whites are not provided for."

DISCUSS PLAN FOR ACTION. In the discussion which followed Dr. Summerall's statements, plans were made for taking immediate action to help afflicted white people.

Mayor Woodward, after consulting with Dr. P. J. Kennedy, the city health officer, who was at the meeting, offered a ward in the Contagious Disease hospital, 25 College street, for children afflicted with measles, with the provision that the Rotary club equip the ward. This hospital at present takes only white scarlet fever and diphtheria patients.

Fifty hundred dollars was immediately promised for beds and other equipment. Three hundred and seventy-five of this was raised at once from the Rotarians present.

This immediate action in regard to measles cases, which Dr. Summerall said were serious and highly infectious, was brought about by Dr. Summerall's statement that in one nursery in Atlanta there were children, ill of measles, sleeping three and four in a bed. In another day nursery there are eight cases of measles, said Dr. Summerall.

Dr. Summerall also gave the "inside facts" in regard to the recent case of a colored servant in a home on the north side who was taken ill with diphtheria and who had no where to go for treatment. The facts were that the woman never had diphtheria at all.

"Frequently an accident results in great benefit to many," Dr. Summerall said. "Here's the true history of the accident in this case."

"A negro woman servant in a family on the north side was taken ill with diphtheria. She was diagnosed as diphtheria. The servant's employer called the Grady hospital—no place for her there. He called the health department—they had no place for her. Then she gave a tip bill to his butler, and told him to find some place for the afflicted woman."

WOMAN HAD LEFT. The butler came back and reported that a colored woman would take the case into her home for $10. So the health department ambulance was called. The sick negro was taken to the woman's house. The blinds were down, the door locked, the place was deserted. The woman had left for parts unknown. So there was the ambulance in the streets of Atlanta with the diphtheria patient in it.

In the city where the sick woman could be taken, Dr. Summerall placed the woman landed in the basement of the hospital for contagious diseases. There it was discovered that she never had diphtheria at all. Then the Grady hospital was called, and within fifteen minutes the woman was in the Grady. That's the accident."

REPRESENT CLEMSON IN DEBATE

ARNOLD R. BOYD AND THOMAS C. HADDON.

These two young men will represent Clemson college in the intercollegiate debate to be held at the Georgia Tech Y. M. C. A. this Friday night, March 7. This is the first debate the local college has ever participated in, and they are putting forth every effort to win. The subject under discussion is "Woman Suffrage." The chances are that some real live arguments will be presented.

Dr. Summerall closed his address by urging the establishment of a municipal hospital, which, he said, ought to cost at a minimum $500,000. This hospital would be able to take care of all kinds of diseases among both colored and white patients.

Mr. F. J. Paxson urged an immediate bond issue to raise this sum. Other Rotarians also urged the bond issue. Mayor Woodward, however, objected. He said the next bond issue ought to be for covering "the smoky squig" that cuts across Atlanta.

"There's no getting around the fact that the people are shy of bond issues," said the mayor. "The issue for building a plant over the tracks which cut across the heart of the city has been agitated for some time, and ought to go through. But if we try to provide all $500,000 for the new hospital, in my opinion, the issue would fail. Let's get through with the plant bonds first."

The last bond issue was very badly expended, except in regard to the Grady hospital. Every dollar there counted. But there were schools built in the wrong parts of the city, and the former council was indiscriminate in passing money through old fields and things of that kind. Also there were many sewers put in front of houses with no water in them. Imagine how beneficial sewers without water are!"

All present agreed that Atlanta was deplorably behind other cities in adequate hospital facilities. Mayor Woodward said he had already provided in Atlanta a temporary hospital for negroes with contagious diseases. This building will hold from ten to fifteen patients.

Victor H. Kreighbaum, chairman of a committee to improve the conditions in regard to caring for contagious diseases, made an interesting talk. Mayor Woodward, Dr. Kennedy and Dr. W. D. Quillen, chairman of the board of health, were the other speakers, before many members of the Rotary club. Dr. Kennedy stated Atlanta was one

The rubber entered as the train slowed up at the city limit, and at once entered the mail, with a revolver. The bandit was masked, then proceeded to secure several sacks containing registered mail. He jumped off the train just as it started for the station.

Postal officials late last night said that it was impossible to estimate the value of the package taken.

The robber did not take newspapers or letters, going through the mail carefully with his finger to the wall of the car.

C. E. Thomas, editor of the mail car, reported the robbery when the train rolled into the station, some thirty minutes late.

OFFICERS SCOUR COUNTRY
FOR MAIL BANDIT'S TRAIL

Sacks of Registered Mail Taken by Masked Man Near Columbia, S. C.

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., March 6.—Special agents of the Southern railway and members of the local police department this morning were without a single clue as to the robbery of the mail car of train No. 11 between Hays and Columbia last night, when a lone bandit entered the car and rifled the registered mail.

Officials at the post office transfer station say that at least seventeen pieces of registered mail were taken, but its value cannot be estimated until all are traced from their mailing point.

The robber entered as the train slowed up at the city limit, and at once entered the mail, with a revolver. The bandit was masked, then proceeded to secure several sacks containing registered mail. He jumped off the train just as it started for the station.

DIES OF BULLET WOUND
INDIANA, Pa., March 6.—Frank Carnahan, recipient of a Carnegie medal and pensioned for life, died at his home here today of a bullet wound from a bullet from the revolver of the man whose life he was awarded for saving. Carnahan was assisting Matthew Leonard, a policeman, in quelling a riot when he was struck by a stray bullet from the officer's revolver. The bullet caused paralysis, which resulted in death.

CHURCH RIOTER GIVEN
THIRTY DAYS IN JAIL

Nearly 200 Other Cases to Be Disposed of by Court in
New York

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 6.—Joseph Allen, a member of Frank Tamm's Industrial Workers of the World army, which stormed New York church, was sentenced in police court today to serve thirty days in jail. He was convicted of disorderly conduct and breach of peace. Nearly 200 other cases remained to be disposed of.

The sentence was imposed by Judge Campbell after Allen's attorney had declined his testimony had been given which proved the defendant had been guilty of disorderly conduct. He had charged his client had, on the other hand, tried to get out of St. Alphonsus church, where the wholesale arrests were made Wednesday night but had been forcibly detained.

Tamm's army was released last night under $500 bail for a further hearing this afternoon, but his followers, who heaved and showed the effects of two days in jail, filed into the court for the resumption of their hearing, not only yesterday, but today. There was a crowd of sympathizers on hand when Tamm's army was not.

NO CAR LINE WANTED ALONG SPRING STREET

Citizens Present Petition Asking City to Bind Itself Never to Grant Franchise

Citizens interested in the Spring street project appeared before the street committee of general council Thursday afternoon and asked the committee to advise that no street railway franchise shall ever be granted on the street.

The citizens proposed to acquire certain rights-of-way for opening Spring street between Fourteenth street and Broadway, and to incorporate in the deed conveying this right-of-way to the city a clause binding the city never to grant such a franchise.

The street committee decided to make an investigation before taking action on the citizens' request.

A plan submitted by Captain R. M. Clayton, the chief of construction, for dividing the street ordinary fund among the ten wards of the city was opposed by some members of the committee whose wards would get less under the plan than other wards. They probably will introduce a resolution in council providing that the fund be divided according to area and population.

The streets ordinary fund as provided in the finance sheet is $60,000. Captain Clayton proposed that it be divided as follows: First ward, 7 per cent; second ward, 12 per cent; third ward, 15 per cent; fourth ward, 8 per cent; fifth ward, 8 per cent; sixth ward, 11 per cent; seventh ward, 9 per cent; eighth ward, 10 per cent; ninth ward, 12 per cent; tenth ward, 6 per cent.

A program of street work to be done in the city by the Fulton county forces has been prepared by the public works committee of the county board and will be submitted to the board Saturday morning. The county engineer already has voted $12,000 to the Whitehall and Forsyth project to be done in the city or of its equivalent in labor.

FRIENDS OF H. N. DUTTON HONOR HIM AT BANQUET
Many Tributes Paid Popular Hotel Man at Farewell Dinner at Piedmont

H. N. Dutton, retiring manager of the Piedmont hotel, left Thursday night just what a lot of folks think of him and if he leaves the city for Baltimore, N. Y., where he goes to assume charge of the Hotel Statler, wearing a finer sized hat, you cannot blame him. From the time that J. H. Hickey, lessee and proprietor of the hotel and host of the occasion, introduced the first speaker, until the guests left the banquet table and joined a strong of merry lancers and trotters at the supper dance in the main dining room, Mr. Dutton was toasted enough to bring a blush to the face of the Sphinx. Those who gathered about the table and expressed their sincere regret at approaching departure of Mr. Dutton, were the members of the Atlanta Hotel Men's association, some of his most intimate friends whom Mr. Hickey had invited as a surprise to him, and members of the press who have for many years been thrown in intimate contact with the guest of honor.

The most delightful feature of the occasion came when Manager A. J. Eichen, of the Georgian Terrace hotel, first president of the association, presented Mr. Dutton with a handsome silver pitcher, two large goblets and tray to match—the perfect gift of the hotel men of Atlanta. The presentation followed that of a check of seven hundred dollars from the employees of the hotel. Every man, woman and child connected with the hotel had a part in the giving. From Assistant Manager H. Frank Taylor, on through the office force, clerks, cashiers, bookkeepers, telephone operators, porters, bell boys, maids, elevator boys, waiters and waitresses, the check of silver was a parting gift from each and every one of them.

The vande, specially prepared by Stewart Howard R. J. Pickett, were the last word in cuisine.

Colonel Andrews Received By Many Crowned Heads While on Tour of Europe

Head of Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission to Mediterranean and Balkan States Writes Interestingly of His Trip

A letter has been received in Atlanta by a friend of Walter Pemberton Andrews, United States commissioner general to the Mediterranean and Balkan states for the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1914, telling most interestingly of the trip Colonel Andrews and the commission is making throughout Europe.

The letter describes at length the colonel's experiences with various crowned heads of the continent and details his audience with the king and queen of Bulgaria.

As I am the commissioner general I have been the spokesman everywhere for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Colonel Andrews, I have made addresses to many kings, queens, prime ministers and other ministers. In every country we have visited royally.

Colonel Andrews states his party will catch the crown princess in Odessa, sailing from Churubovo on March 11 arriving in New York March 17. He will stay there for ten days and make a brief stop in Washington on his way home to Atlanta.

The colonel's letter is written from the Rognia-Palast hotel, Maximilianplatz, Munich. It reads in part as follows: "Our trip has indeed been wonderful and has been filled with experiences that I can never forget. I enclose a newspaper clipping in French of one of my meetings or audiences. They both understand and speak English. We were ushered into the throne room in the center of which stood the king and queen. Our minister introduced us after which Commissioner Brown and I made address to them and the king replied in a most cordial and gracious tone. We had expected the audience to continue about fifteen minutes, but after the formalities were over they invited us into another grand hall, where the ladies and gentlemen of the court, numbering about two dozen, were introduced to us. Tea and other refreshments were served.

"The king did me the honor to draw me aside and talk personally with me for more than half an hour. We remained two and a half hours with the royal party. The day we were to leave for Vienna was his birthday. He asked for me to his birthday party. He sent his personal motor car to our hotel for me. It is a limousine, Mercedes 100-horsepower, and very richly furnished.

"We were to take the Oriental express running from Constantinople to Paris, the fastest and best train in Europe, and the king ordered it held at his private station until we finished luncheon. He then took us to the station in his own car. I was the guest of honor on his right by his side. The train had waited there for us an hour. Furthermore, he directed that his royal locomotive, one of the most powerful in Europe, with a record of 100 miles per hour, be attached to our train and pull the train to the Bulgarian frontier.

"I sat at the king's right at the luncheon and talked with him freely. He is as easy and unpretentious and pleasant in his manner as any president we have ever had. He is one of the most accomplished movers in the world. He knows and speaks fourteen languages, and prides himself on being the democratic king of Europe. He and the queen both are deeply devoted to the welfare of their subjects, and I could not imagine two

3 NEGRO MURDERERS SENTENCED TO DEATH

Convicted of Killing Mrs. Irby, County May See First Triple Hanging

Robert Paschal, George Hart and William Hart, three negroes, who were convicted more than a month ago for the murder of Mrs. Irby, of Louisville, Jefferson county, were brought before Judge Ben H. Hill, of the criminal division of the superior court, Friday morning and sentenced to death on March 7.

The first sentence of the negroes was stayed, when attorneys filed a motion for a new trial. This motion was denied by Judge Hill, and no appeal to the supreme court was taken, and as a result the negroes are doomed unless they secure executive clemency.

Robert Paschal, before the court pronounced sentence, made a short statement, saying that he saw two men, not the Hart boys, kill Mrs. Irby. He said that he was standing in front of the residence at the time and saw the murder, waiting to the home of the Hart boys, where the crime later led a posse.

This statement was the basis of the motion for a new trial, which was made for the negroes, but overruled. If the governor does not stay the sentence, Fulton county will see the first triple execution in its history on March 7.

EMMA ABBOTT And Her Songs

The winsome and winning personality of Emma Abbott will always be associated with "Halcyon Girl," although she made a great triumph in "La Traviata" and Meyerbeer's "Faust" in London and Paris. Emma Abbott was born in Chicago in 1849, and her early death in Salt Lake City from pneumonia in 1891 deprived America of one of her most gifted prima donnas. It was her delight to sing selections from "The Bohemian Girl," "The Dream," "Dwell in Marble Halls," "The Heart Bowed Down," and "Then You'll Remember Me."

These songs are contained in "Heart Songs"—a collection of 40 of the world's favorite songs. This paper indorses this book and is now distributing it. Read the coupon elsewhere in today's issue.

people more gentle and sweet than they appear to be. They are great admirers, and I may say, lovers of America. The king asked me to give a trial performance of my manifested the very keenest interest in my subject. I told him that I had made address that "we consider the Bulgarians as the Americans of Europe."

The clipping Colonel Andrews enclosed in his letter prints his speech in full. The clipping is in La Potitque, and is, of course, in French. In part it says: "The Commission composed of Monsieur Walter Andrews, in commissionary general, at St. Moritz, Thomas Rees and Calvin Brown commissioners, a long and interesting discussion of the Exposition with the minister des affaires etrangeres, et a cette occasion Monsieur Andrews, commissaire general, prononce le discours suivant: Colonel Andrews' discourse is then given.

ENTHUSIASM CONTINUES AT BIBLE CONFERENCE

Dr. Poteat and Others Give Interesting Addresses at the Morning Session

The arrival in Atlanta of Dr. Edwin Poteat, of Clemson college, gave an unexpected and interesting address Friday morning at the Bible conference. Dr. Poteat was listed in the original list of speakers, but following the statement that he would not be able to reach Atlanta for the conference his name was eliminated from the program. He reached Atlanta Thursday, however, much to the delight of the conference directors, and spoke Friday morning at the Tabernacle at 10 o'clock. He will also speak Saturday.

Dr. N. N. Palmer spoke at 9 o'clock, and Dr. George Stuart spoke at 11.

Dr. Stuart discussed the biblical command to "Love thine enemies."

He said there were four ways in which a man is not expected to love his enemies and one in which he must love them. The four ways not required, he said, are: 1. Love them as you love yourself. 2. Love them as the love of the world. 3. Love them as the love of the church. 4. Love them as the love of the state. The fifth way, which he said is the only way in which a man is expected to love his enemies, is to love them as he loves himself.

A large audience attended the session. The midday address will be delivered as usual by Rev. M. L. Trotter.

Thursday night Dr. Russell Conwell, pastor of the Baptist Temple in Philadelphia, spoke to the conference. He discussed faith and its importance in life. He illustrated his theme by telling the life of General Joseph Garibaldi, the Italian patriot, declaring that he was great and successful so long as he had faith, but that when he lost his faith he became a coward.

Dr. Conwell is the only American newspaper man who ever interviewed Garibaldi. In 1870 the New York Times sent Dr. Conwell, who was then connected with that paper, to Italy to interview Garibaldi in his home at Caprera. Dr. Conwell spent a week there, and on his return wrote an interview that covered almost the whole of Garibaldi's life.

Dr. Conwell's address was based on the personal knowledge of Garibaldi gained through that interview, and the lecture is considered one of the most masterly of those that have been heard from the Tabernacle platform.

Dr. Conwell will speak Thursday afternoon, Dr. Coburn and Dr. Souper's addresses completing the program of the afternoon session.

Although the departure of Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, who left Thursday, was greatly regretted by the conference, interest has not slackened. There are still notable addresses on the program for Friday afternoon and Saturday.

The conference this year has extended its influence by holding auxiliary conferences in Macon, Athens and Connington. The same speakers who appeared on the Atlanta program have made flying trips to these cities to deliver addresses, and large crowds have heard them in the smaller cities.

This year, too, provision was made for the colored people of Atlanta, and each night some speaker addressed a large gathering of negroes at the Bethel church. Also seats were reserved at the Tabernacle auditorium for colored ministers and workers, and many attended the daily sessions.

The conference will close Sunday afternoon with an address by Dr. Camden Coburn, and the Rev. M. L. Trotter will be speaker for the Saturday night session.

TALMADGE CHAIRMAN OF EDUCATION BOARD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

FORSTH, Ga., March 6.—The Monroe county board of education, which was selected by the Monroe county grand jury has had a meeting for the purpose of organizing for the coming year. Thomas H. Talmadge, of Forsyth, was re-elected chairman; the other members of the board being Messrs. Homer Harden, of Russellville; U. R. Foster, of Calhoun; T. Castleberry, of Calhoun; and J. G. Bush.

IN THE LOCAL PLAYHOUSES

Henry W. Savage's famous morality spectacle play, "Everywoman," will be given at the Atlanta at a matinee this afternoon and again tonight. The engagement is for the two performances only, as a musical comedy follows on Saturday. "Everywoman" is known to the majority of theatergoers as one of the really important plays of the past few years, and its hold on the public has been so great that it has an appeal to all classes from the tired business man to the clergyman and teacher of morals. Its local engagement is sure to be a big success with all houses at each of the two performances.

On Saturday two performances will be given of the dainty musical comedy, "The Rose Maid," which made such a hit here last year. It is a real comic opera with beautiful music, fine comedy and dancing of a kind to please the most fastidious. It will be a company of merit which has won praise from the critics throughout the south.

Seats are now on sale for the engagement of Anna Pavlova, the noted Russian dancer who will appear Monday and Tuesday with a Tuesday matinee. This famous dancer is supported by an equally noted dancer, Novikoff, and a company of eight with a complete symphony orchestra. At each of the three performances a different program will be given, the whole being well worth while from the standpoint of artistic triumph.

Rebel Green, a dainty star on the Forsyth's bill this week, is helping to crowd that theater to its utmost capacity. Possessing a most fetching wardrobe and a good selection of songs, her magnetic power makes her the drawing card. "The Dance Reverie," a pretty girl, all good dancers, and a

A young man possessing a good voice and also a most capable dancer, present a most novel act. Other favorites are Williams, Thompson and Copeland, in "The Burglar's Union," the Haslam and Prevost and Brown.

Next week's offering will be headlined by Laddie Cliff, England's clever boy comedian. Two of starland's cleverest girls, Alberta Moore and Myrtle Young, Carl Byarl, until recently principal tenor with George Evans' Honer boy minstrels, and Dora Early, and famed, the sensational Turkish pianist will be big features on the bill.

Norman Hackett and his players are scoring their biggest success since "The Double Deceiver" at the Lyric this week. This is the tenth week of the popular stock company, and concludes the season.

"The Double Deceiver" is a splendid vehicle for Mr. Hackett and the members of his company. Matinee Saturday afternoon, and night performances tonight and Saturday will give opportunity to those who have not yet seen this capable production to do so. Saturday night, as a curtain raiser, the play will be presented.

A great feature photo-play is being presented at the Grand the last three days of this week. "The Double Deceiver," one of the biggest sellers of American novels, by Henry M. Woodson, Jr., made its play form, instantly scored a wild success, and with Thomas W. Ross as the star, it has played all over America.

ice to crowded houses. This picture will be presented this afternoon and tonight, and concludes with tomorrow afternoon and night, from 2 until 5 in the afternoon, and 7 until 10 at night, 10 and 25 cents being the price of admission.

No better play than "Heart of the Rockies" has ever been produced at the Bijou. As presented this week by Edie Black and his associate players, the melodrama is winning approval at the hands of patrons of the cozy Marietta street playhouse. Mr. Black is starring in a part which he makes stand out as a bit of real acting. The role of Jack Mason, the gambler, is the sort of character that gives heart to the part is proved by the hearty applause which greets him at every performance.

Miss Marie Claire, the leading woman, is cast for a splendid role and she makes the most of it. All the other members of the company appear to advantage. Crowded houses have been the rule all week and indications are that standing room will be at a premium tonight and Saturday.

"The Countess" will be the offering next week and the company is busily engaged in rehearsing the new play.

MRS. EMMA A. MOON
DIES AT EASTMAN HOME

EASTMAN, Ga., March 6.—Mrs. Emma A. Moon, mother of E. S. Moon, one of the Eastman aldermen, died Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock, after a brief illness with pneumonia. She was forty-four years old. She is survived by a father, three brothers, three sisters and three children. The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church, of which she was a member.

A PROOF

"Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith; prove your own selves."

---2nd Cor. 13:5

Some ardent prohibitionist—

Or, perhaps, an anti-prohibitionist—

In either case, one of those strange men, fortunately in the minority, who believe the hold of alcohol upon County and State to be so great that men will invariably perjure themselves in preference to keeping an oath—

One of these may sneer:

"What of the failure of the last Grand Jury to indict the violators of the liquor laws?"

Brothers, look!

Revenge, punishment, prosecution; these are not the purpose of the Church of God in pointing to the breaking of that law in clubs and bars.

Many, who are trying to follow Christ, are glad that the clubs, the majority of whose members may be, and doubtless are, trying to follow Christ in their way—many are glad that these were not indicted.

IT WOULD HAVE BEEN A LASTING DISGRACE, HAD THE GRAND JURY INDICTED ANY LOCKER CLUB, ITS STEWARD OR MEMBERS, AND MADE AN EXCEPTION OF THESE BECAUSE OF THE POSITION AND POWER OF THEIR MEMBERS.

As it is, the clubs, regardless of name or position, may yet prove to the world that their purpose is to respect and uphold the law.

The Grand Jury indicted none. But it signed the death warrant of the lawless locker club. It pointed out that some of them are deliberately violating the law.

In the case of Rosthchild against the State, Judge Ben Hill, then a member of the Court of Appeals, wrote—

"INTOXICATING LIQUOR CANNOT BE SOLD IN THIS STATE BY AN INDIVIDUAL OR A CORPORATION AS A BEVERAGE, AND WHEN A STEWARD OF A SOCIAL CLUB SELLS TO MEMBERS OF THE CLUB INTOXICATING LIQUORS, HE IS GUILTY OF A VIOLATION OF THE LAW, ALTHOUGH IN MAKING THE SALE HE IS ACTING SOLELY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CLUB."

There is no room for a dispute. The law is plain. Members of each Grand Jury which convenes could themselves give evidence of the violation of the law. Detectives are not needed to supply the evidence in the case of many clubs.

Think of these things.

Does the locker club hasten the coming of the kingdom of God?

Does the disregard for the sacredness of law by men in office, high in authority, and men, leaders in our city's life—

Does this advance the cause of Christ?

You read a few days ago: "In Mitchell County, Ga., an eighteen-year-old girl shot her father. The man was drunk. He was trying to choke the girl's mother to death."

In Berlin, where beer is king—in one year three thousand women were supported by the city; they were obliged to leave their husbands. "The vast majority of the latter were drunkards."

Baer says:

"54% of German divorces are from drink."

"Eulenburg affirms that in 24 years, 1,152 school children in Berlin killed themselves, and he attributes this not to overstudy, but to home troubles—in most cases alcohol."

Do you wonder that Emperor William is becoming an advocate of abstinence?

You are right in saying—

"Morality, sobriety and salvation can never be legislated into man."

ONLY CHRIST CAN SAVE.

But do you help or hinder Him when you, a member of His church, supply a man with liquor—when you teach the servants in your club to disregard and break the law?

Sunday, will you not go to the Church of God and there, in His house of prayer, think of these things?

By your own conscience you stand or fall.

It is not fanaticism that asks—

"Are you satisfied with your life?"

God calls—

"Examine yourselves—prove your own selves."

FORD AUTO MANAGER TALKS TO MEN

Robert Abbott Tells How First Car Was Constructed From a Goat Wagon

Taking as his subject the marvelous growth of the Ford automobile manufacturing company, as an illustration of a great American industry, Robert Abbott, manager of the Atlanta branch of the Ford company, made a most interesting speech to the Ad Men's club at their luncheon at the Andover hotel Thursday.

W. H. Leahy, of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, made a brief address in which he congratulated the city upon the acquisition of a Ford assembling plant soon to be erected here, and it was announced that at the luncheon next Thursday Manager Jack Letton, of the Andover hotel, would tell the ad men the "inside of the hotel business, or how to make turtle soup out of chicken liver."

At the luncheon Thursday the ad men were seated around a square table, the centerpiece of which was a Ford auto mobile on a grass rug, made in sawdust from the Ford colors, green and red.

After recounting how Henry Ford, an alien in the employ of the Edison electric company, at Detroit, had first constructed the first Ford car from a buggy cost wagon and a discarded boiler, and how the business had grown until now Henry Ford is estimated to be worth $72,000,000.

Referring to the plant which is to be built here Mr. Abbott said: "We are now working on our property in Ponce de Leon avenue, where our latest assembling plant is located. We are expecting our architects here every day. The new plant will have a railway frontage of 150 feet and the Southern railway will run a double spur right into our plant, where we can load forty or fifty cars every day of the year."

"Our plant will be built of concrete and glass and will be a model, as all of our plants when it comes to sanitation, light and air."

"We will employ about 500 men. We operate all of our plants on the minimum wage plan. None of our employees make less than $1 per day. We work them but eight hours. None of our men are fired. When we find that they do not fit a job, we transfer them to another kind of work. During each year at $1 per day, our payroll as you will see, approximates $750,000 per year."

"We will import the majority of our workers. By that move we will increase the population of Atlanta at least 5,000."

"After our first year here we will increase our working force. And I will personally see to it that the men we import here make their coming to Atlanta advantageous to the city."

STARTED FOR SCHOOL, BUT NEVER RETURNED
Father Don't Want Son to Have Shelter Unless He Is First Notified

James Newman, eleven years old, 21 Oakhill street, left his home Tuesday morning and has not returned. The boy attended the Inman Park school, and on the day of his disappearance carried his books with the intention of going to the school.

The boy's father, J. S. Newman, asks that no one give him shelter or food, without first notifying him of his whereabouts.

Twenty-two pennies, three bottles of grape juice and three cigars were taken by a thief who entered the store of E. B. Cox, at 48 Gordon street, during the night Thursday.

The same store was burglarized last December of twenty-two pennies, four bottles of grape juice and one box of cigars, according to police records.

New Leader of Elks

H. H. Milner is Chosen

Exalted Ruler of Elks

Popular Local Railroad Man Wins High Office—Other Officers Elected

H. H. Milner was elected Thursday night by the members of Atlanta lodge No. 74, B. P. O. Elks, as their exalted ruler for the new year. Mr. Milner succeeds A. L. Dunn, who has rounded out a year of active and useful service to the lodge and was not a candidate for reelection. The esteem in which Mr. Dunn is held by his fellows of the order was manifested in their selection of him for the place of representative to the grand lodge session this year in Denver.

Mr. Milner has been in the service of Atlanta lodge in various offices for the past several years, and his elevation to its highest honor is held to be a fitting reward for services well rendered and loyalty unswervingly proved.

Other officers chosen all without opposition—were: I. S. Moss, esteemed leading knight; George C. James, esteemed leading knight; A. T. Porter, esteemed leading knight; The Most. Secretary, H. B. Williamson, Jr.; treasurer, J. P. Phillips, trustee; E. C. Osborn, treasurer; A. L. Dunn, representative to the grand lodge at Denver, which meets in July; John D. Simmons, alternate.

LAW STUDENTS ADVISED TO PRODUCE SHAKESPEARE
Sixty students of the Atlanta Law school attended to Norman Hackett, who closes a stock engagement at the Lyric theater this week, address them Thursday afternoon on "The Art of Expression."

The lecture was one of a series being given at the law school, the next being by Thomas Swine, Jr., United States patent commissioner, at 3 o'clock Thursday.

Mr. Hackett emphasized the similarity between the legal profession and the stage and stated that all great lawyers are actors. He advised the law students to produce a Shakespearean play if they would improve their oratorical ability.

ELKS LODGE WILL GIVE DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT
A dance for members of the B. P. O. Elks and their ladies will be held Saturday night in the home of Atlanta lodge No. 74, on East 21st street. All members of the order are invited. Miss Kathryn Wheeler and Guy T. Murray, the professional dancers who are making a tour of the super duper circuit at the Piedmont, will demonstrate some of the new dances from 9 to 10 o'clock.

CITY GOT NO REDUCTION ON HOSPITAL AMBULANCE
White Co. Official Says Machine Was Not Fully Equipped When Sold

The statement that the White company cut prices on its ambulance for the Grady hospital recently bought by the city is declared an error by William D. Alexander, head of the truck department of the company, who says that much misunderstanding has arisen over the fact that the ambulance, originally a $2,200 machine, was obtained by the city for $2,390.

"The ambulance sold to the city was stripped of any equipment," he states. "The ambulance was fully equipped for $2,200, but the machine sold to the city had no equipment whatever, and the difference in the price was really the cost of such equipment."

ATLANTA INAUGURATES INFANT WELFARE WORK
Two Nurses Selected for This Work Report to Dr. Kennedy for Instructions

The infant welfare work of the city health department, for which the finance sheet makes provision with an appropriation to employ two nurses, was inaugurated Thursday when these nurses reported to Dr. J. P. Kennedy, the city health officer, and had their work outlined.

The nurses are Mrs. E. H. Fell and Mrs. W. T. Mitchell. They are graduate nurses and have had valuable experience in the particular work for which they are engaged.

Their work will consist in showing mothers how properly to care for infants, in the way of nourishment, hygiene, ventilation, clothing, etc. The nurses will visit every home where a birth is reported to the health department, except in the case of private nurses who have already been engaged, and will see that the new arrivals are given the right start in life.

Dr. Kennedy, in presenting to the finance committee last January the need for this work, declared that in his opinion the infant mortality rate in Atlanta can be reduced from 10 to 20 per cent simply by directing mothers in the proper handling of infants. The finance committee at once appreciated Dr. Kennedy's arguments and put an appropriation in the finance sheet to pay the salaries of two nurses.

In addition to this work the nurses will, when they visit families, make inquiry in the neighborhood as to whether other babies have been born, and by this means the health department will keep track of the physicians in the matter of reporting births.

According to Dr. Kennedy, the city's birth record is not nearly so complete as it should be, because of the negligence of physicians in reporting births to the health department. The city health ordinance requires them to make report within five days after the birth of a child, and makes them liable to fine or imprisonment for the recorder for failure to report.

Lace Blouses of Unusual Charm

The Acme of Artistic Achievement in Creating Clever Styles at $3.00 & $3.50

STYLE is more a matter of creation than material. In blouses, inexpensive laces produce the same soft, undulating lines; a frill of lawn or chiffon is as charming as one of silk. By reason of materials alone, these blouses are $3 and $3.50. Were you to judge wholly by the styles you would say they were worth much more.

$3.00—This attractive blouse is made of wide artistic bands of lace and net over a net foundation. Deep double frill around neck, cuffs and down front.

$3.50—All shadow lace over net lining. Deep double frill edged with black extends down front and around collar. Cuffs similarly treated.

$3.50—The body chiefly of shadow lace; the rest of the waist and arms of net. Net foundation. White frill trimmings.

SHOW'S CROP REPORT.
 CHICAGO, March 10.—A snow storm, the heaviest since the middle of winter killing, has done the least damage to the crops in the northwestern states. Kansas and Oklahoma, which have had the heaviest snow, have not only furnished the best crops but have had the best crops of any pasture but is in such good shape that it will be left to harvest, so that the acreage will be larger than that of any other state. The crop of corn is about crop possibilities at this time, but the fact remains that past records show that a large part of the crop will be lost. The crop is coming out of the winter in even better condition than it went in. This can only be taken as an index of good that will be a very large, abnormal large acreage.

YOUR MONEY
Getting Used to Trust Regulation.
By JOHN M. OSKISON.

ts. Last year, when you talked with anybody connected with big business, you were apt to hear the story of the villain in the melodrama, who, after he had tried at least ten different ways to kill the heroine, asked her wistfully,

The story would be applied to Washington and big business—the president and congress standing for the villains, and big business for the oft-persecuted heroine. These men really felt very sorry for themselves; and they only smiled wanly, incredulously upon President Wilson's repeated assertions that he was not after big business or any other sort of business that was conducted fairly.

But since the turn of the year, you don't hear the persecuted heroine story so often. Business men are getting used to the idea that such regulation as is foreshadowed in Mr. Wilson's talks and in the "Five Brothers" bills he is pushing through congress is going to be directed pretty strictly toward the correction of abuses of trust control and the prevention of private monopoly.

"I have always felt," said the president, when he signed the new banking and currency law on December 23, "when the Democratic party was criticized as not knowing how to serve the business interests of the country, that there was no use replying to that in words. The only satisfactory reply to suppose that in the consideration of the question of trust regulation the same sanity will not be observed.

Myrtle Elvyn and Philharmonic Orchestra in Concert

The Philharmonic orchestra of the Atlanta Musical association, under the direction of Mr. Mortimer Wilson, played to splendid advantage Thursday evening when they appeared at the Atlanta theater in the fifth concert of the season.

Clear musical understanding was shown in the collective numbers, rendered with skill and harmony. An increasing enthusiasm is being manifested in the work of the orchestra and performance Thursday evening was most gratifying to the supporters of the association.

A masterful, bold stroke, tempered with delicacy of touch portraying a perfect mental and technical control, combined to make Myrtle Elvyn, noted pianist and soloist of the evening, one of the most finished artists in concert work today. Her appearance with the orchestra afforded a rare treat to the music lovers who made up the audience.

Edward Greig's concerto for piano, Opus 16, was a pretentious solo offering accompanied by the orchestra, and Miss Elvyn gave a wonderfully effective rendition, with simplicity of movement and accuracy of technique, fascinating in its precise control.

The duo was expressively beautiful under the interpretation of Miss Elvyn, the very simplicity and delicacy of its rendering made all the more beautiful because of the magnetic influence of the player's individual conception.

The audience was held spellbound after its realization that the first encore offered by Miss Elvyn was none other than the familiar "Blue Danube Waltz," which was being transformed by Miss Elvyn into a concert piece of brilliance and startling pianoforte complexity. There were measures of vibrant variations instantly a peculiar charm was lent to the simple melody by the artist's lithely soft touch.

A left-hand arrangement of the "Ballet from Lucia" was a final proof of Miss Elvyn's mastery of the keyboard.

French Musicale at Executive Mansion

An interesting event of Friday afternoon was the musicale given by the members of the French Alliance at the executive mansion. Since its organization the meetings of the Alliance have been marked by a series of lectures and addresses, but the meeting Friday afternoon was purely musical and was the first of a series to be given by the society.

The program was entirely in French and featured recitations from well-known French authors and a series of French songs, as well as instrumental numbers comprising selections from the great French composers.

A violin solo by Alexander Von Skinsky was an enjoyable feature of the program. Among those taking part were Miss Jessie McKee, Mrs. Hanson Wright, Miss Dorothy Harman, Miss Margaret Fraser, Miss Julia Dunning and others.

A large audience was present and the afternoon was one of rare artistic interest. The membership of the Alliance is increasing daily, and the series of lectures by well-known French lecturers to be given before the organization will prove interesting events of the early spring and summer.

DATES ANNOUNCED FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS

March and April Designated for Salaries Paying From $660 to $1,200

Civil service examinations for government positions paying salaries on a scale from $660 to $1,200 per year will be held in Atlanta during the months of March and April, and also throughout the fifth civil service district under the direction of District Secretary Butler B. Hare.

On March 30 examinations will be held in the federal building for shop and harness makers, open to men only, to fill vacancies as they may occur in the Indian service in the Cherokee school in North Carolina. The salary for these positions is $660 annually.

The other examinations will be held April 15 and 16 for a laboratory assistant in the bureau of standards, department of commerce, Washington, D. C. The entrance salary for this position ranges from $660 to $1,200 per year, and there is excellent opportunity for promotion. All applicants must be between the ages of twenty and thirty-five years.

To Mrs. Little

The polished round table arranged for Mrs. John N. Goddard's luncheon at the Piedmont club Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Frederick S. Little, of New York, acquired the restful green room of the club and made a beautiful picture in its artistic appointments.

A large north basket filled with spring blossoms including white lilacs, blue hydrangea, pink and lavender sweet peas and gardenias, formed the attractive centerpiece and about the surface were scattered small bouquets of velvety purple and yellow pansies. A great low of "ruffled" Dresden ribbon was attached to the handle of the natural-colored basket.

The guests were invited to meet Mrs. Little, who has been delightfully entertained as the guest of Mrs. Edward H. Innan.

Conrad Recital

On Monday and Tuesday, March 9 and 10, Miss Agnes Conrad, assisted by Miss Waytch, violinist, and Miss Lane, pianist, will give a song recital at the Wesley Memorial church under the auspices of the Home for Old Women. There will be three performances, Monday and Tuesday evening and Tuesday matinee.

Reception to Study Class

HOROSCOPE FOR SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1914.

Serenely may rest the mild While grim Saturn's very mild.

This is a quiet day, in which Saturn rules nifty for good during the early hours, while in the evening the sun is well aspected.

Saturn's steady away tends to produce a thoughtful, conservative frame of mind, which adds to the popularity and esteem that is enjoyed in ordinary conditions.

Old persons should benefit from the friendly influence of Saturn, which stimulates them and produces a feeling of uplift and optimism. Their favor can be best obtained when this configuration prevails.

There is a lucky star for building, repairing and buying lands. Plans approved today are likely to be satisfactory.

The time is fortunate for pushing business and procuring support in any enterprise which requires strong guarantee.

Those who seek employment or promotion should benefit while the sun is in a place that is good as friendly to the activities of men and women.

Storms of unusual violence are prophesied for the end of this month. The loss of a yacht owned by a millionaire is foreboded.

The sun in time to Saturn in the horoscope of the queen of England is read as indicating increased respect and growth of popularity, but Mars, in parallel to the radical moon, gives warning of evil. March will be an odd, even month in which ill health is likely.

It is predicted that a western woman will gain sudden fame in national affairs.

According to ancient lore, the friendly aspect of Saturn is always beneficial to stone masons, bricklayers, potters, bakers, bakers of bread and all who have acquired money by self-denial.

Many household activities should be lucky today. Baking, brewing, sewing, hiring maid servants and other employments should prosper. It is also an auspicious time for fishing.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect a prosperous year. Those who are employed are likely to be promoted. Both men and women should benefit.

Children born on this day have the omen of success in life. They should be industrious, enthusiastic and fond of company. Girls will be exceedingly popular.

When Fred Laufert departed from the small town where he had grown and Elsie Fraser said between some that she supposed he would forget all about her and fall in love with some smart city girl as soon as he got rich. Fred was not so sure. As if any girl in the whole world of cities could equal Elsie! And he believed it. Elsie was the prettiest girl in town and five other young men had reviled him for beating them to her attention. She had curly brown hair that he had never seen and she knew how to dress and all the other girls in town waited for her to interpret the styles. "I guess not," said Fred, scornfully, "himself as he stared out the car

What Anne Rittenhouse Says

Thinner Materials Used in America Than in Paris.

PARIS, March 6.—Paris is always full of activity in the days just succeeding the openings of the big dressmaking houses. The fashionists must be summed up and the good points must be emphasized, the bad ones overdone.

Modifications of various sorts are always necessary before the French clothes are in every respect ready for American women. The clever American buyers realize this fact.

One thing that they must keep in mind is the fact that our climate is different from that of Paris. Many of the fabrics used in the frocks shown in the openings would prove too heavy for our mild weather.

Fashion's opening has been the subject of much favorable comment. But many of the buyers have concluded that the fabrics he uses are too heavy and, in giving their orders, have stipulated that the garments be made in some thinner fabric, usually satin.

So we shall probably see a good deal of satin on this side of the Atlantic. There will also be much crepe, both plain and printed. Gahardine is another fabric that may be widely chosen. It has much body, but it is not thick and therefore it is admirable for our climate.

Brocade is much used by the Callot and other designers. But brocade is too heavy for our spring. Poplin, gingham, satin and taffeta, in a soft, supple quality, and crepes of many sorts, both figured and plain, will doubtless be most used in America.

Black Lace Evening Gowns. Callot showed several black lace evening gowns for formal or elaborate wear. And this news will be welcome to many women who have found black lace the most reliable fabric for formal summer evening wear.

Last August, at Deauville, some of the best dressed women, French, English and American, numbered a black lace frock in their wardrobes, and, indeed, they are durable—a point which the extravagant American usually keeps in mind.

Why is it that American women, who are willing to spend fortunes on their clothes, their personal adornment, yet insist that the fabrics of which their clothes are made shall be serviceable? They are not so much interested in their shoulders and don't chafe in the rain with a casual coat if it means less.

To get back to black lace, some very attractive frocks of white and black lace combined have been shown. One of them is made with a foundation of the finest white cotton crepe. There is a deep, narrow band of white lace about the bottom. Reaching almost to the hem, it is made with a foundation of the finest white cotton crepe. Thin frocks will be made of linen if present indications are to be trusted. And poplin, printed in calico designs, will also be used for warm weather clothes.

Only it is a week in a grocery store—well, Fred, I am sending back the money. I don't understand how you could buy it on $5 a week. Dear Fred, I will always remember you kindly, but I will never buy it again. And how many young men tried to tempt me in the city.

I'll tell her," cried Marjorie indignantly. "Do you care?"

"Do you?" asked Fred.

"No," said Marjorie.

"Oh," said Marjorie, and twisted a corner of the tablecloth nervously. "I do, too, sometimes," she said.

"Why?" demanded Fred in surprise.

"Oh, not for any reason. Just because," she said.

Manager Gilks Gets Contract Of Jack Lively

Big Pitcher Who Formerly Told for Billikens Returns. Played With Sacramento Last Season - Molesworth Wanted Him for His Baron Crew

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 6.—Manager Gilks yesterday afternoon announced that he had received the signed contract of Pitcher Jack Lively. Southern league fans need no introduction to this hurler, for he played with the Billikens in 1910 and was sold to Detroit, where he stayed one season, and was then sent to the Providence club of the International league.

Lively remained with the Providence club until last season, when he was given his release and last joined the Montgomery team, pitched and won straight games. Last season, after the Billikens and was then released to the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast league, where he won 11 out of 24 games pitched for that team.

When Lively reported here last spring he was in no condition whatever, being three pounds over weight, and his manager Gilks that he was never in condition the entire season. Last season he pitched and won straight games for the Billikens and was then released to the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast league, where he won 11 out of 24 games pitched for that team.

CONTRACT RENT WEEK AGO. Several weeks ago Lively wrote a letter to both the Montgomery and the Birmingham clubs of the Southern league stating that he was free agent and wanting to know what terms they would offer him for the coming season. In this letter he stated that he was now in far better condition than he was through the entire of last season, as he had for the past month been out in the woods cutting down trees, in the field playing golf, and taking strenuous exercise in order to get down to his playing weight.

When Manager Gilks received this letter from Lively, he mailed him a contract and this contract was returned last Friday afternoon with Lively's signature to it. Several days before this the Birmingham papers reported that Molesworth had announced that he had signed the former Southern league star to a 1914 contract. Billy Birmingham papers were carrying daily stories about the Barons having secured this hurler. Bobby Gilks is still in the line of the alleged contract was received last Friday morning, a wire was sent to Secretary Farrell of the Minor Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, advising him that Lively had signed with the Montgomery club. Farrell wired back that Lively was on the release list of the Sacramento club.

SENT RELEASE TO GILKS. Gilks then took the matter up with Lively and on yesterday received a letter from Lively enclosing his release from the Sacramento club signed by Harry Wolverton, the manager. Gilks will offer Lively a contract for the 1914 season, and the property of the Montgomery club. When Gilks wrote Lively about the Sacramento club having him on the release list, he also asked about the Birmingham club having him, telling him that he had been by the Birmingham papers as well as having been told by Manager Molesworth in Mobile at the spring meeting that he was to play with the Barons this year. Lively's reply to this was that he had received a contract from Birmingham just about the same time as he received the one from Montgomery, offering him practically the same amount as the Billikens offered him, and that he had much rather play with the Montgomery club than to play with the Birmingham club.

Bobby Gilks started Lively out in professional ball, when he was the manager of the Gulfport club of the Cotton States league, and the Billikens' manager taught him what he knows about baseball today.

Lively writes that he is sure that he will make a winning pitcher. He had this year and Gilks has decided to give him a trial with the Billikens. Transportation has been made for him and he will report within the next day or two.

McGoorty Will Battle Georges Carpentier

CHICAGO, March 6.—Middleweight champion, in a bout in Ireland some time in May, according to a message from McGoorty yesterday. Richard E. Parker, the former New York politician, reported to have offered a prize of $25,000 for the fight.

Organize New League

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 6.—The Pennsylvania and West Virginia baseball league was organized here today by directors of the old Virginia-Pennsylvania league. "Franklin" was elected to its first term in Pennsylvania and two in West Virginia. It will be a class "D" organization.

TRAY SHOTS AT PORT TARGETS

PAYS TO ADVERTISE. We don't know whether the Federal leagues, in the short course of their busy existence, have found the time to turn to such trifling matters as adopting a motto, choosing a favorite flower, or compiling a court of arms. However, if Messrs. Gilmore, Weighman et al. are by any chance contemplating the adoption of a slogan or motto, we would suggest any one of the following: "Nothing Succeeds Like Success," "Don't be a Flier," or "Keep 'em Talking."

To listen to the tales told of offers made by the Feds to well-known players, you might readily decide that the same Feds derived their business training from some theatrical group, and that their knowledge of currency was confined to the greenbacks displayed by the German comedian in the pinocchio game. If money talks, the well-known players as the most loquacious henchmen ever herded under one paw in this or any other section of the globe.

It is doubtful whether anyone has taken the time to figure up just how much the Feds have displayed an eagerness to spend for ball players, in spite of the fact that a considerable element of our cosmopolitan population seems to have been born with a predilection for figures. It is claimed that the new league has expended something more than a hundred thousand bucks, as advances on salaries and bonuses for players signed. If this be the case, the sums they are alleged to have offered other stars would make a grand total almost large enough to buy a controlling interest in the Standard Oil company.

MATTY KNEW. Their latest outburst developed in the form of an offer of $65,000 for three years to Christy Mathewson to manage the Brooklyn club. Strange as it may seem, Matty did not grab this offer, in spite of the fact that he is reputed to be a keen business man, and to possess a vision that can lamp a dollar mark forty leagues away. In fact Matty says he never regarded the offer seriously. And the reason for his failure to do so, is no doubt due to the fact that Matty knew that he could have about as much of the kind of currency implied in this offer printed up himself as he wanted, and that too at no great expense. You know the kind of pinocchio player displays on the stage doesn't bear any likeness of any of our famous statesmen of the stage, neither does it make any promise of redemption at the U. S. treasury.

About the only slip that Gilmore and company appear to have made to date was in naming the figure carried in the offer to Ty Cobb. At that the stenographer may have made a mistake in leaving off one cipher. There is no way of telling.

Johnny Evers has promised Boston fans that he will work his head off for the success of the Braves during the approaching season, which of course means that Trojan John is going to give the Hubbies his best. However, there is no truth in the report that he has requested Manager Stallings to have the schedule committee amend the schedule so that the Braves will battle the Cubs every day.

NO ALARM. American boxers need entertain a little fear of another invasion of American soil by Bombardier Wells, as a result of his victory over Bandman Blake, another English pug who a night since. It develops that Blake was giving away twenty-eight pounds to Wells. Doubtless there are several other English lightweights that Wells can stop.

Joe Mandot and his manager Tommy Walsh are coming to take real stock in the damage that a punch will do without honor save when on horseback. Walsh announced that he will take Joe to Chicago and that henceforth they will operate from the Windy City. "We will treat New Orleans just the same as any other city that we may stage a battle in," says Thomas.

Ad Wolgast says that Willie Ritchie has as much chance of beating him in a ten-round battle "as a mosquito on a bald man's head." Decide for yourself just what odds he laid against Williams.

WHY AN CHARGE. A report from the Athletics' training camp at Jacksonville announces that Mack's pitching staff continues to be quite a puzzle. We should say "continue" in the correct phrase, speaking from the standpoint of a host of batters in the American league. If the scribe refers to the personnel, why not fill in with a few old worn out bums and one or two green rookies that bubbled along through last season?

Hugh Jennings has just come forth with a statement that proves further that he is entirely human. Hughes has pulled a finger for the remark of a well known fox in Asop's story book. It is for the effect that Edgar Willett will do the Tigers as much good pitching for the St. Louis Feds as he would be a member of their own hurling corps. The gem who remarked on the difference just a few short hours made a brilliant speech.

Manager Bill Schwartz has just gotten in a brand new supply of natty uniforms for his ball club. All that is left for Bill to do now is to go out and get a few real players to fill in between the lines. Yes, Bill is a lucky guy.

TOMMY LONG IS THE LATEST ADDITION TO LOCAL SQUAD

Activities at Ponce de Leon park Friday morning took on very much the appearance of the real thing in baseball. Manager Smith had no less than fourteen of his candidates on hand in uniform, and besides these, there were two present with their street clothes on. They did not get into the fun. The following men were out in uniform: Pitchers Terrymore, Lawrence, Brown and Doehrer; Infielders Amason, McConnell, Schmidt, Marush and Walsh; Outfielders Nixon, Kircher and Long; Catchers Walsh and Munch; Harry Weighman and Gil Price were on hand, but did not do their diamond spangles.

Tommy Long reached the city last night, and is the latest member of the crew to report. The bunch were through a spirited rubber practice, and also took turn in slugging the ball at

Federals Fail To Land Any of Tourist Stars

Representatives of the New League Meet Home Comers But Fail to Induce Any to Jump-Speaker, Doolan and Egan Sign With Their Respective Teams

NEW YORK, March 6.—Efforts of the Federal leagues to sign up members of the party of baseball tourists, who reached New York today on the steamer Lusitania, apparently failed. This Speaker, Mike Doolan and Dick Egan, all of whom were mentioned as possibilities before the party arrived, signed with their respective clubs shortly after coming ashore.

As soon as the Lusitania reached dock President Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn club, introduced Egan, formerly with Cincinnati, as his new shortstop.

"I've just signed a three years' contract with Brooklyn," said Egan, "and the terms offered are satisfactory to me." Though none of the Federal league representatives came aboard, President Gilmore, with Otto Knabe, Stovall and other Federal league officials, were on the pier, anxious to know whether any of the players would jump. Among the players who received such messages were Speaker, Doolan, Speaker, Egan, Wings Crawford and Leverett. The signing of Speaker, Doolan and Egan promptly eliminated them from any possibility of entering the Federal fold, and none of the other players mentioned would admit that they were taking the offers seriously.

The Australians treated us well, said Jimmy Callahan, the White Sox pitcher, who has been here several days. He surprised us with his knowledge of inside baseball. He was a member of the Japan crowd followed us after the games were over. American fans have nothing on the Japanese rooters. "Scheerer was the 'big noise' in the pay sheet, but Mike Doolan was the whole work in London. He was at one time the big crowd behind center field at the Chelsea grounds."

The players will likely be here until Monday, when all of them will go south.

Albany Pres. Has Resigned

ALBANY, Ga., March 6.—J. K. Pray, who has been president of the Albany Baseball association since its organization and who, through the three seasons of its existence in the South Atlantic league, has labored faithfully and zealously for its success, has submitted to the board of directors his resignation to the board of directors and Mr. John D. Mosely was elected in his place.

The resignation of Mr. Pray was accepted with regret and reluctance by the board of directors. It was only after his statement that he desired to retire after three years of continuous service, and that the duties and responsibilities of the position over to some other citizen and baseball enthusiast that the directors consented to consider it.

The election of Mr. Mosely as president of the association means that the affairs of the Albany baseball club will continue to receive the serious and enthusiastic attention they have received under President Pray for the past three years. Mr. Mosely is a well known Albany, a baseball fan of the first degree. He is determined that Albany shall have a winning team this year. Egan H. Casper was elected secretary.

Added to the election of a new president, the coming of Phil Wells, manager of the Albany club, has aroused local baseball interest, and the fans are looking forward with expectancy to developments from day to day in the preparations that are being made for the approaching season. Today Manager Wells sent out transportation for all players. The pitchers are ordered to report in Albany at once, and all other players no later than next Monday.

Manager Billy Price of the St. Paul club in the American Association, paid Bill Smith a visit, and with him the boys lumber up. Price is taking the club to Memphis for early training, and left this afternoon for that city. Price suffered the loss of one man—Bill McCoschle—to the Federal.

Two Seek Admission Into Georgia League

AMERICA, Ga., March 6.—Fitzgerald and Dublin have applied to President Kaimen for admission to the Georgia State league for the opening of the season on April 16. Their application was rejected, and no consideration by the directors of the league.

JOE BEAN SIGNS TO COACH GEORGIA BASEBALL TEAM

The athletic association of the University of Georgia has closed with Joe Bean to coach the baseball team during the approaching season. Coach Bean will report at Athens next week, and will take immediate charge of the Red and Black candidates.

Joe Bean has had wide experience in athletic affairs of many kinds and especially in baseball. His last active work in professional ball was done in managing the Jersey City team of what was then the Eastern league. After his departure from Jersey City, he came to Atlanta, where he took charge of athletic teams at Marietta. He also was given charge of affairs at the Atlanta Athletic club, and his work with both aggregations has been marked with success.

That Bean will turn out a winner for Georgia there can be little doubt. He knows baseball thoroughly, and furthermore he knows how to handle a college team. With Joe in charge at Athens, other college teams in this section may look for astute competition, when they meet the Red and Black. Bean was named largely on the recommendation of Coach Alex Cunningham, who will give him time over entirely to work with the football candidates for next fall.

School Teams Organize League

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 6.—Final arrangements for the organization of the South Georgia school league were made when representatives of the six schools in this city met at the city hall and elected their officers. The officers elected were: President, J. H. Smith, of Valdosta; vice president, George Roach, of Tifton; secretary-treasurer, S. G. Gilmore, of Tifton. The league is made up of the high school teams of the following schools: Valdosta, Tifton, Moultrie, Tifton, Thomasville and Valdosta. A constitution and by-laws were drawn up and adopted as also was a schedule for the coming season. The schools will each have a team to participate in the league, five on the field. The opening date for the league is March 10.

As this is the first season of the league, the board of directors has taken to enforce all of the rules and strict discipline will be the motto of the day. A clause somewhat similar to that in the constitution of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association was put into the constitution and every effort is to be made to make the league a benefit as well as a pleasure.

Waycross Fans Are Jubilant

WAYCROSS, Ga., March 6.—There's nothing that takes the place of a team in Waycross today. Manager Wild Bill Clark, after having allowed several days by a snowstorm, has arrived, and today the players who will report by March 10. Quite a few men are here now and prospects for a splendid team are bright, and at no time in the history of the city has there been greater interest in baseball than is evident in Waycross today. Every fan is keen for the opening of the season. The first big game will probably be played March 19.
